

Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee. That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know. Victorious king, thy mercy show!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (1 Cor 5:7-8)
Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord. Alleluia!

GOSPEL (Jn 20:1-9)
The Lord be with you. And with your spirit, according to John. Glory to you, O Lord. It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb,' she said, 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The rite of the Renewal of Baptismal Promises is desirable after the homily. The Profession of Faith is then omitted.
Dear brethren (brothers and sisters), through the Paschal Mystery we have been buried with Christ in Baptism, so that we may walk with him in newness of life.

And so, now that our Lenten observance is concluded, let us renew the promises of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and his works and promised to serve God in the holy catholic Church.

- And so I ask you:
- Do you renounce Satan I do.
 - And all his works? I do.
 - And all his empty show? I do.
 - Do you believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth? I do.
 - Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, suffered death and was buried, rose again from the dead and is seated at the right hand of the Father? I do.

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting? I do.
And may almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us new birth by water and the Holy Spirit and bestowed on us forgiveness of our sins, keep us by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord, for eternal life. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING (Acts 10:34.37-43)
A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.
Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 117:1-2.16-17.22-23)

- 1 This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad.
or
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.
Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.' 1
2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. 1
3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. 1

SECOND READING (Col 3:1-4)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians.
Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE
Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.
The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled.
Death with life contended: combat strangely ended! Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.
Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way. The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as he rose! The angels there attesting; shroud with grave-clothes resting.

On Your 100th Birthday

100th Birthday
We congratulate Mai Liston, Donoman, who celebrated her 100th birthday on last Monday 14th April. This was a magnificent achievement, and we wish her well in the future.

A Very Special Thank you

A special thanks to all those who attended the Holy Week Devotions and the Easter Vigil Ceremony. A special mention for those who set up the Easter gardens and decorated the Altar and its surrounds. We acknowledge the great work of our Sacristans and those who cleaned the Church. To all those who were involved in the various liturgies i.e. Readers, Eucharistic Ministers and the Collectors. Again we are indebted to all who support the offertory collections as well as the dues collections. As we are all aware Easter is the most important Church feast of the year and strengthens our belief that Jesus has risen from the dead for our sakes and has given us the promise that death is not the end experience but the prelude to a glorious existence. Therefore, we rejoice in the age old Easter Greeting: "Christ has Risen" alleluia.

Reflections on Easter
During the course of our lives, we experience many losses and disappointments. This brings home to us how fragile are our hopes and how brittle our dreams.
Lord, may the splendour of your resurrection scatter the shadows of death, and enable us to walk in radiant hope towards the kingdom where there are no more shattered hopes or broken dreams.
We feel sad at the onset of winter, but we are not too despondent, because we know that spring will renew everything again. Just as the expectation of spring takes the sting out of winter, so the resurrection of Jesus takes the sting out of death for us. God of power and love, through the resurrection of your Son you have kindled in our hearts the hope of eternal life.
Guard this hope with your grace and bring it to fulfilment in the kingdom of heaven.
It is impossible to exaggerate the value of hope. Hope is to the spirit what bread is to the body. Our disappointments may be many, our joys may be small, but our hope is great.
The resurrection of Jesus is the basis of our hope.
We wish all our Parishioners at home and abroad a very happy Easter and that this feast will bring about renewed hope and encouragement.

HAPPY Easter
